DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3 February 2007 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

2. Claims 15-32 remain pending.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments, see the remarks, filed 3 February 2007, with respect to the rejections set-forth in the prior Office action, have been fully considered in light of the above-mentioned amendment and are persuasive. The admitted prior art fails to teach the claimed layers deposited directly on one-another (i.e., without any intervening layer(s)), as now claimed. Consequently, the rejections are withdrawn.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

4. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 21 (currently amended)      The method as claims in claim [[1]] 15, wherein the thickness of the third noble metal layer is about 0.3 to 0.6 $\mu$ m.

Claim 32 (currently amended)      The method as claimed in claim [[1]] 15, wherein the second passivation film has a molding surface.

5. Claims 15-32 are allowed.

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

A. The prior art neither teaches nor reasonably suggests the claimed process in which the claimed layers are formed in the "directly on" relationship (i.e., without any intervening layer(s)), as now claimed.

B. The above Examiner's amendment merely corrects the dependencies of the claims 21 and 32 which referred back to cancelled claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
